COUNTY'S SUBSCRIPTIONS IN THE THIRD LOAN CAMPAIGN PASSED HALF MILLION MARK LAST NIGHT

Several Thousand People Thronged Main Street Saturday Evening to Witness Hoisting of City's Honor Flag—Rev. Wean Makes Inspiring Address.

Coshocton County's Liberty Loan subscriptions late Saturday evening were just over the half million mark, the latest reports showing a total of $504,300. It is believed the quota of $531,400 will be reached Monday night.

Coshocton City's honor flag, "the bonniest flag that ever floated from a masthead," was proudly hoisted to the top of the flagstaff in front of the courtsquare Saturday evening by Mrs. Delva Metzler, as representative of the patriotic women of the city, while an enormous throng that packed Main street and the south side of the courtsquare lustily voiced its heartfelt satisfaction of the fact that the old town in less than a week's time has greatly oversubscribed its quota of $150,000 in the Third Liberty Loan campaign. At no time, with the exception of when Coshocton's company of volunteer soldiers left for Camp Sheridan, has such a rousing ovation been given to "Old Glory." The inspiring ceremony lasted only a few minutes but the enthusiastic demonstration seemed to weld more firmly the patriotic fervor which has ever characterized this city.

Church bells all over town blended in a golden chorus at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. J. I. Wean, from an automobile just in front of the flagstaff, called attention to the fact that never since the dawn of creation has there been such a tense moment in the history of civilization than just now. He said it is a grand privilege to live in this crucial period of the world's progress. He pictured the plains of Picardy where the brutal hordes of Huns are striving desperately to conquer the Allied forces with the purpose of Prussianizing the entire world. With fervent confidence he predicted that the tide will soon turn and that the Allies, strengthened by the righteousness of their cause, will soon be sweeping the bloodthirsty Huns back to the Rhine and to Berlin. He said that we here at home, while far removed from the battle's din, separated by old ocean from the actual scene of conflict nevertheless are intensely interested in the outcome. Not only is the world's future at stake but Coshocton county is watching eagerly for encouraging reports because some of her boys are now within sound of the enemy's guns. Who knows, said Rev. Wean, but that the next casualty list may contain the names of some of our own young men. He said that in spite of the gloom there is cause for rejoicing in the fact that the same patriotism in evidence today that prevailed during the dark days from '61 to '65. He paid a beautiful tribute to the noble motherhood of this country and laid stress upon the fact that the women are willingly doing their part to help win the war. He lauded the untiring efforts of the women of this city who quickly sold their quota of

"Fifty-three years ago Saturday morning our regiment, the Ninth Ohio Volunteer Cavalry marched into Raleigh, North Carolina," said N. C. Bush, Saturday. Kilpartick's command was driving Johnston ahead of it, and it was a happy bunch of boys who entered the Carolina capital that day. The mayor of the city met us a half a mile out of the city with an escort and a white flag was raised in behalf of the town,' the veteran continued.

"Important events followed in rapid succession, but the most impressive to me was the death of the president, Abraham Lincoln. I had been on outpost duty when the news was received in camp, and when I came in everything was quiet and solemn among the boys who were only a short time before flushed with victory. I tried to stir things up a little and started a song but got nothing but cross looks. Upon inquiry of some of the boys I was asked if I had not heard the news that Lincoln was shot. I can truthfully say that none of us knew how much we really loved that man until we heard of his assassination."

Mr. Bush, who is a well known resident of Coshocton, celebrated his seventy-seventh birthday anniversary Friday and was in a reminiscent mood Saturday.

WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP GOES OVER THE TOP.

Washington township went well over the liberty loan quota of 13,000 at the rally held Saturday night. A total of $13,000 was subscribed, according to a report furnished at one o'clock by J. W. Preston and George M. Gray, of Coshocton who attended the meeting.

WOMEN SELL $90,000 IN BONDS HERE

Raised Quota of $35,000 in One Day, and Kept Up Good Work.

Over $90,000 worth of Liberty Bonds were sold during the last week by the local Women's Liberty Loan committee, is the splendid report made Saturday night by Mrs. Delva Metzler, chairman of the committee. The women of Coshocton are taking a great interest in the campaign, and are untiring in their efforts to get subscriptions.

Wednesday evening, the women were assigned a quota of $35,000 to be raised on two days. Despite the slush and snow of Thursday, they got to work, and raised the quota in one day. Their report Saturday morning showed $85,650 worth of bonds sold. The number of subscribers totalled 358.

Many people were visited in their homes and several factories were canvassed. In the Coshocton Novelty Friday afternoon, Mrs. C. B. Smith talked to the employes and explained the plan of having $1.00 per week deducted from their pay envelope on a $50 and $2.00 per week on a $100 bond. A large number of subscribers were added to the list from the factory visits.

During three days of the Columbus campaign, the women raised $21,000. Considering what has been accomplished by women in various cities in Ohio, the local women have just cause to be highly pleased over their work.

The youngest worker among the fair sex is Miss Alice Snyder, of South Fourth street, who sold $3500 in two days. Mrs. Metzler's committee is composed of Mrs. Joseph McCloy, Mrs. P. B. Johnson, Mrs. T. J. Hanley, Mrs. S. H. Nicholas, Mrs. C. H. Magruder, Mrs. William Wendt, Mrs. Edward Hunter, Mrs. D. O. Thompson, Mrs. John Baughman, Mrs. Hugh M. Hay, Miss Mary Sauvery, Mrs. L. E. Judd, Mrs. U. K. Pamperin, Mrs. Daniel T. Johnson, Mrs. George Hill, Mrs. Joseph Mathews, Miss Anna McCartan, Mrs. Charles Carpenter, Mrs. O. M. Dilts, Mrs. H. J. CITY VOTES ON CHARTER GOVERNME'T IN AUGUST

Vote Will Be Cast in Connection With the Summer Primaries.

PETITION READY TO FILE APRIL 22

M. H. McCormick Secures Necessary Ten Percent of Signers in 8 Hours.

Coshocton municipality electors will vote at the primary election early in August on the adoption of a commission form of government for the city.

This fact was made certain Saturday when M. H. McCormick, one of the principal promotors of the project secured over three hundred names on a petition for an election. The petition will be presented to the city council at the next meeting of that body on Monday evening, April 22nd, and council is bound by law to call an election for a date not less than 60 days nor more than 120 days after the filing of the petition. The date of the election will be fixed upon August 5th to avoid expense of a separate election.

The matter of securing a commission form of government for the city was broached at the meeting of council last Monday night by Mr. McCormick, who had lined up certain members of the council to push the project. Councilmen expressed their kindly feeling toward the plan but refused to call an election, choosing rather to be petitioned by ten percent or more of the city's electors.

Mr. McCormick, in accordance with the suggestion of councilmen took the petition up and down Main street to the business men and in less than eight hours secured the necessary number of signers. Only one business man refused to sign the petition, altho not all who signed it were in favor of the change. In the whole city only four men approached refused the solicitor down.

The proposed change from the present to the commission form of government seems to be overwhelmingly favored in Coshocton, according to Mr. McCormick, who has discussed the matter with more than three hundred voters within the past few days.

The proposition was voted upon be-

U-BOAT CREW BROT TO U.S. PRISON CAMP

German Sailors From the U-58 Will Be Landed at American Port Soon.

(BULLETIN)

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, APRIL 13.—Practically an entire German U-boat crew will be held in the United States as prisoners of war. They will land at an American port in the very near future and will be sent to a detention camp as prisoners of war there to stay until the war ends. The crew is that from the German U-58 captured by the Destroyers Fanning and Nicholson several months ago and which was sunk after capture by the officers opening the seacocks of the craft. The personnel of the party, it was learned today, comprise four commissioned officers, one warrant officer and thirty-three enlisted men.

Bringing these to this country is accepted here as indicating that the policy of the United States will be to retain charge of all German prisoners of war. Those taken by the army on the western front probably will be returned to the United States on the empty troop transports, thus solving the question of supplying them with food. It will be very much easier to feed them here than on the other side, now that the food shortage in France,

HAIG'S MEN SNATCH BACK LOST TERRITORY IN BIG REBOUND FROM RETREAT IN FLANDERS

Superhuman Power Instilled in Tommies' Breasts by Command to Fight to Last Man—Menace in Center is Held but Not Mastered.

LONDON, APRIL 13.—A strong position in the Givenchy section of the new battle front north of the Lys river in France, has been captured by the British in a storm assault, it was stated in unofficial advices from the front this afternoon. The Germans delivered many attacks against the British position at Locon but all were broken.

LONDON, APRIL 13.—Like an electric current the order of Field Marshal Haig, chief of the British armies in France to "Fight to the last man" has flashed thru the ranks of the weary outnumbered British army in Flanders at a moment when its fate and the fate of the allied cause was hanging by a thread.

Galvanized by new and undreamed-of strength these Britishers rose to the demand, and far from retiring, leaped forward inspired by that superhuman force and snatched back valuable slices of lost ground from the foe.

As the battle stood tonight the menace in the center was held, but not mastered. But the very holding of it came as a tremendous cheer to the people of Britain, who have just passed thru a week of unprecedented anxiety.

On the Flanders front Haig's forces were not only holding the foe but were hitting back, and important local gains were registered. The British still hold Bailleuil, the vital railroad center which is the chief German objective northwest of Armentieres. Bethune, the enemy's coveted goal in the south, because it is also a vital rail head and base is less endangered tonight than it was yesterday. It is protected by the British right flank which at Festubert, considerably to the eastward regained some ground in a brilliant counter thrust.

A terrific combat raged all day around Neuve Eglise, five miles north west of Armentieres and eight miles southwest of Ypres. Upon its outcome rests the fate of the Messines Ridge.

CITY MARKET TO BE BROT FROM DISCARD

In an effort to revive the market which it has been customary for several years for farmers to conduct on Main street in front of the court square Wednesday and Saturday mornings, it has been decided that no house selling of butter, eggs, fruit, vegetables or other farm products shall be permitted on these days during market hours.

The Wednesday and Saturday morning markets were at one time quite popular, but of late there have been so few wagons at the stand that many people do not realize that Coshocton has a market. It is not at all unusual for there to be only one wagon in front of the court square on Saturday morning, and on Wednesdays there is often no market.

Market hours are from four to 10 a. m., and Chief of Police Mapel will see that the order prohibiting house to house selling during these hours is enforced.

COSHOCTON BOY TELLS OF DAYS AT THE FRONT

According to a letter from Ralph Courtright, Co. I, 166th U. S. Infantry American Expeditionary Forces, to his mother Mrs. F. Courtright, of Locust street, Harry King, who went to France several months after the Coshocton division is now back with his company.

The letter tells that Courtright has been in the front line trenches.

"The first trip lasted 10 days and 11 nights," he writes, "and believe me I was almost all in and was glad to get out. It is very little shell a fellow gets while in the front line. I don't know how long it will be until we go in again, or where we will go. It is not likely that we will go back to the same place."

The letter is dated March 15.

CHILD GETS SICK CROSS, FEVERISH IS CONSTIPATED

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat, or any other children's ailment give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sourable and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company"

The $5000 5-ton truck isn't any better than a Maxwell. It's merely bigger. That's all.

The five Maxwells will do more work, carry more goods, carry them faster, serve more uses at less cost.

THE JUNKER'S NEED FOR VICTORY

The German war party's need for a speedy victory is explained in the German Democracy Bulletin by Herman Rosemeier, Ph.D., former editor of the Berlin Morning Post. Prussian junkerdom wants to get its hands free to deal with revolution in Germany.

German revolution is on the way, declares Dr. Rosemeier. The Junkers believe, however, that revolution will break out among their enemies first, causing disorganization that will enable them to win in the world war. Then they look to crush revolt when it raises its head in Germany.

But the workers of England and France too well understand the issue to give Germany any such chance. The way in which railroad, shipyard, and munitions factory workers sunk their objections to a further combing out of British industries in order to fill up the army the very moment that the present German drive got under way ought to show the Prussian Junker he faces people who are not going to revolt, for the very good reason they themselves are in control.

As for Italy, her one attack of weakness is not likely to be repeated. It is true the Junker's hope for revolution among his enemies was realized in Russia. But America is taking Russia's place, and the Allied strength and unity are greater than before.

DON'T BE A WELCHER

Do you suppose Abraham Lincoln, if he were alive today, would buy a Liberty Bond?

Do you know that the German people, with all that they have suffered, oversubscribed the heavy popular loan to their infamous Government recently? And that Government is the one we must break?

Do you think that the wealth of this Nation, which is incalculable, inconceivable, indescribable even in billions, is sound security for the loan of a few more of your dollars?

Do you understand that your Government must have the amount it asks for, and, while there is no need for threats at this time, and there probably never will be, the Government gets what it must, as it did in the case of men when the volunteer system proved inadequate?

Do you realize that he who lends to Uncle Sam gives manyfold to himself, and that his interest is paid in dollars, in safety, in honor, in victory, in life itself?

Do you doubt that the Stars and Stripes are worth a few greenbacks to you?

Do you want, in the ultimate hour of America's monumental triumph ,when she has restored peace to the universe and freedom to all peoples, to say to yourself, "I did nothing to help all this?"

Do you hope for the achievement of your country's aims and promises, ideals and pledges, yet hoard a few beggarly dollars at the same time?

Do you quite digest the oft-told proposition that, if we win, your Liberty Bonds are worth par and interest; if we lose—heaven forbid—the money you withhold from the public purse for that purpose is no better lien against your Government than the bonds themselves?

Do you dare to look your Liberty Bond buying neighbor in the face when you, yourself, have welched the sacred obligations that you automatically assumed every time you enjoyed the protection of the Stars and Stripes since birth or adoption here?

Do you value a cold dollar more than the hot thrill of having done a citizen's full duty; struck a blow against abysmal tyranny; backed the lads who are fighting for you; saluted Old Glory and kicked the Kaiser?

Do you still look a fat bank balance in the countenance when every true American is ready to strip himself for the world's salvation on earth?

Do you experience any emotion when the "Star Spangled Banner" is played, and can possession of a few hidden currency notes give you the same grand sizzle of pride, love, courage, hope, and exaltation?

Do you, then, your duty!

Buy another Liberty Bond and swell your American chest; you have helped make world history; you have helped make world humanity; you have helped make world glory for a world saved from butchery and kultur.

The Jollier

If beauty is only skin deep some good people must have awful thick hide.

It's tough to bet and lose, especially when to win would have meant wedding bells, says an ex-county official.

The only way to dodge the war chest solicitors will be to have all your money and wages tied up in liberty bonds.

Some old hens are all right until they get into the chicken salad.

Let the dear society women lug their pet poodles to the Red Cross work room if they must—morale counts for much.

America will take less pleasure in winning this war than in seeing the kaiser lose.

A barber once made a fortune by means of a simple sign. It read, "Only deaf and dumb barbers employed."

If prices keep on going up somebody is going to lose something, said a laboring man with a large family. And he is right.

There are probably few ideal marriages, but that is no reason there should not be more sensible ones.

What's become of General Bug?

The war may be fought to make the world safe for democracy, but it sure is making it hot for the Democrats.

PEOPLE'S FORUM

AN EXPLANATION

Editor The Tribune:

In your issue of this afternoon there appeared a news item relative to a luncheon at the Park hotel Thursday noon that will undoubtedly be interesting to many readers.

The impression is given that the civilian relief work is carried on by an organization separate and apart from the Red Cross, which the article denominates the Coshocton Civilian Relief society. Such is not the case. There is no such organization as the Civilian Relief society. This work is carried on by a committee appointed by the Red Cross organization and this committee, which is a part of all Red Cross chapter organizations, is known as the Civilian Relief Committee of the Red Cross.

The credit for all service rendered by the committee is due the Red Cross for the reason that this Civilian Relief Committee is a part of the Red Cross organization and has no functions except those granted it by the Red Cross organization.

These misleading statements tend to confuse the public mind regarding the scope of Red Cross work and in a measure takes from it credit for the service rendered by this committee.

Thomas G. Brown,
Chairman Civilian Relief Committee.

Delightful Musical At Local Studio

A delightful musical was given by Miss Olga Schauweker at her home on Park avenue, Friday evening for the Historical club and a few other guests. Two advanced pupils were presented, Miss Mary Failor of this city and Miss Lola Burdetta Clark, of New Castle, both reflected credit upon their teacher

Before the first number Miss Schauweker gave an interesting talk on the war relief work being done by Chaumade, who has abandoned all professional duties.

Two piano numbers by Misses Failor and Schauweker was played with extreme virility and color. Miss Failor displayed technical skill and artistry in all her numbers Miss Clark's playing was praise worthy. She played her numbers in a nice style full of expression and vigor.

Miss Alice Laughridge, of Columbus very ably assisted with the program. Miss Laughridge is gifted with a big soprano voice which she uses artistically She possesses a charming personality and won instant appreciation from her audience . Her numbers were greeted with enthusiasm and she responded with two encores, "For You," by Liza Lehmann and as a second she used, "When The Boys Come Home," by Oley Speaks. For a closing number she sang the obligato solo with the club singing a new arrangement of America.

FOCH'S NAME WON'T RHYME WITH HOCH

To pronounce the name of General Foch
remember he's going to thrash the Boche,
And Boch is pronounced as if it were bosh!
So take heed when talking of General Foch

Stephen Lauzanne, editor of Le Matin, of Paris, a Frenchman and a scholar, says

"The correct pronounciation of the name of General Ferdinand Foch is with a short 'o' and with the final 'ch' as tho it were 'sh' a trifle shortened It will rhyme with the English exclamation of dugust, 'bosh' Or it will rhyme equally well with a French soldier's name for the unspeakable German butcher soldiers— 'boche' All you have to remember is that General Foch is going to give the Boche what he deserves and you have the correct pronunciation But for heaven's sake, don't call the gallant General in the horrible gutteral German way His name does not rhyme with 'hoch' The saints forbid"

Italy, and Great Britain necessitates this country sending practically all food across the Atlantic

The crew of the U-58 was the first big capture of German prisoners by the navy The Fanning and Nicholson were escorting a freight convoy when the under-sea craft was spied. The Fanning rushed at top speed to the spot where the submarine had disappeared and dropped a depth charge. It exploded and forced the U-58 to come to the surface. The crew lined up with hands uplifted in token of surrender However, before all could be taken off the craft sank as the result of the officer's treacherously opening the seacocks after the surrender

Members of the crew of the Fanning jumped overboard and rescued the survivors who could not swim. One member of the German crew died on the way to a British port and was buried with full naval honors

THE MARK OF THE BEAST

Everywhere in Belgium and Northern France, in Serbia, in Montenegro, in Roumania, in Poland and in many other places is the Mark of the Beast.

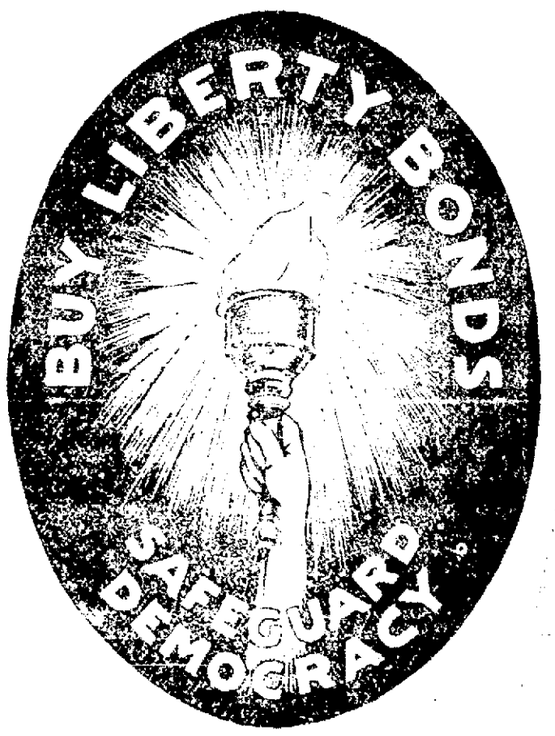
Women outraged and murdered. Children murdered or maimed, their little hands cut off, their pitiful sufferings unheeded. Men murdered or carried away into slavery. Churches pillaged and defiled. The poor goods of the peasants in their cottages stolen or broken up with malignant thoroughness. Farm implements smashed and battered into uselessness. The fruit trees in orchards systematically ruined, one by one—these and thousands of similar barbaric details bear the indelible Mark of the Beast.

How long is this to continue?

Just so long as German power remains unbroken.

The civilized world, to which you and I feel that we belong, must stop these things and render them forever impossible of repetition.

To stop them effectively our armies and navies must have guns and ammunition and everything that money can buy in endless quantities. The only way that this money can be supplied is through LIBERTY BONDS.



Therefore Buy Liberty Bonds

SAMMIES GIVE 'EM HELL IN A HOT SKIRMISH

By BERT FORD.
(International News Service)

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, APRIL 13.—"All the machine gun emplacements have been shot away but every gun is working like hell."

This was the report made to American headquarters in the field by the commander of an American machine gun unit during the hottest hour of yesterday's all day battle, which ensued after German storm troops attacked our sector northwest of Toul.

The defiant wording of the report typifies the vareorous spirit the Americans displayed throuot this first large scale daylight combat with the enemy. The Americans took 50 prisoners. The first assault was against the French troops. The adjoining Americans delivered a counter attack driving the Germans who had reached the first line slowly but surely back with hand grenades and cold steel. Savage hand to hand fighting ensued.

The enemy found the American and French lines like stone walls. One American officer remarked, "Here's where we get 'em out of their sewers and fight like men in the open. Just see those youngsters go to it." The Germans left dead strewn on all sides. They retaliated with a ponderous shell fire, shells bursting on all sides in curious contrast with the old men, women and children toiling in the vineyards on the hillsides less than six and a half miles away.

Miles away from this terrific din blossoms were shaken off fruit trees by the concussion of the bombardment. There was lively aerial activity during the fighting.

$35,000 worth of bonds in the present campaign. And so, said Dr. Wean to the women has fallen the honor of hoisting Old Glory.

While the Coshocton Glass Company's searchlight, from a high point on the Park hotel building, cast its bright rays upon the flag, the beautiful silk emblem was run up the pole by Mrs. Meitzler, assisted by members of the Liberty Loan committee. Just underneath the large flag was the U. S. government honor flag awarded to the city for subscribing its quota. Projecting downward from the top of the pole were four strings of red, white and blue pennants, greatly enhancing the general effect. Thrice the big assemblage responded to Rev. Wean's call for "Three cheers for Old Glory" and while the men in the throng lofted their hats the Coshocton band struck up "The Star Spangled Banner"—a most fitting finale for the stirring demonstration.

A large number of Coshocton people will leave in automobiles Sunday afternoon to witness the presentation of the special silk flag and the honor flag to the citizens of Lafayette township.

MANY ELIGIBLE TO COMMISSION

(By F. H. WARD)
(International News Service)

CAMP SHERMAN, OHIO, APRIL 13.—A colored candidate for an officers' comissions bids fair to lead the class of 650 men in the Third Officers' training camp, it became known today.

Colonel James G. Hannah, commandant of the school, today said it seemed doubtful whether ten or fifteen day furloughs would be issued to the graduates, as was the custom at the first two camps at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana.

It was estimated today that between 500 and 650 of the candidates would receive certificates of graduation making them eligible for commission as second lieutenant as vacancies occur.

The list of successful candidates, instead of being given out in alphabetical order, will be published with the man with the highest grade at the top, followed by the others in the order of merit.

As commissions are issued the men with the highest grades will receive them first. The successful candidates will be announced April 20.

Some of those active on the buying side late yesterday changed their position and offered stocks at the opening. In most cases their purchases were made with the intention of selling today and the consequent declines, which ranged from fractions to over 1 point were without significance.

Marine preferred yielded 7-8 in the first few minutes to 91 1-4 and lesser losses were sustained in many other issues.

AUSTRIA READY A YEAR AGO TO DITCH BERLIN WAR LORDS

PARIS, APRIL 13—That the Austro-German alliance was perilously near breaking just one year ago was shown today by an official note given out by the French government containing the text of a secret "peace letter" written by Emperor Charles, of Austria.

"The letter which was dated March 31, 1917, recognized France's claim to Alsace-Lorraine, and pledged its restoration of Belgium and Servia.

The letter was communicated to President Poincare by Prince Sixtus De Bourbon, the Austrian emperor's brother-in-law. In it Charles asked that England's views be ascertained also."

The action of the French government in making public this important communication shows up as false the recent statement by Count Czernin the Austrian foreign minister that France had made overtures for a separate peace to Austria. Just what effect the publication will have on relations between Vienna and Berlin cannot now be foreseen.

At the time the letter was written things were looking very black for the central powers. A breach had developed between the United States and Germany over the submarine question. The British armies in Turkey had captured Bagdad, shattering the German dream of a continuous commercial link from Berlin to the Persian gulf. The Germans on the western front were in retreat and the British had just captured Peronne. Revolution had broken out in Russia and none could see how far the unrest would spread westward.

An official statement was given out in Vienna yesterday which contained a telegram sent by Emperor Charles to the kaiser. It related to the statement by Premier Clemenceau that Emperor Charles had recognized France's claims to Alsace-Lorraine. In it the Austrian ruler said:

"I indignantly repel the assertion. At the moment when Austro-Hungarian cannon are firing alongside of German artillery on the western front on proof is necessary that I am fighting for your provinces."

WASHINGTON, APRIL 13. — The diplomatic side of the world war today was rampant with sensation that may yet rebound to the advantage to the entente. Premier Clemenceau's charge that Emperor Charles, of Austria, had favored restoration of France's lost provinces has caused a most profound sensation in Germany despite the Austrian emperor's denial. The very fact that the French premier made it plain that the assurance of the Austrian ruler was contained in an autograph letter indicated that France is ready to produce proof. And it is very plain from information reaching official and diplomatic sources that Berlin is inclined to doubt the solidarity of Germany's chief ally.

It is understood here that when Premier Clemenceau goes before the foreign affairs' committee of the house of deputies next Wednesday will not only produce his proof of the announced position of Emperor Charles but that he also will make further sensational revelations of both Austrian and German intrigue—possibly involving two neutral nations—which may have the effect of clearing diplomatic skies and result in additional complications for Germany.

Incidentally the various reports of the peace conference of the mysterious Professor Anderson who visited Count Apponyi, the Austrian pacifist, before the United States entered the war have aroused only the most languid interest in official quarters here. His efforts, like those of Henry Ford and other self appointed conciliators, never had any official standing, official say.

CAR OF SEED CORN WILL NOT BE BROT HERE

There will not be a car of government purchased seed corn from Pennsylvania but to this county, as had been planned by L. C. Shaw, E. C. Darling and T. J. Hanley.

Owing to the fact that up to the present date there has been orders received for only about 400 bushels, or half a car of corn the plan was abandoned.

The state requires that if advantage of the offer for War Emergency Seed Corn is to be taken it would be necessary for a full car of corn to be ordered from one community. The three local men who made an effort to secure some of the government hot corn have decided to abandon further effort, and in order to give those who were kind enough to place their orders with them for some of the expected car of corn they take this means of announcing that their orders are cancelled and they are free to get their corn elsewhere.

M'QUEEN PRODUCES A NEW FREAK LILY

A freak plant of the lily family, grown by Jacob McQueen, of Baltic, is on display at Wimmer-Arnold's drug store. The plant is about three feet high, and the flower, which is just in bud now, is dark red. The bud is about a foot long.

Mr. McQueen says that he gave the bulbs of these plants no care this winter, but simply put them on a potato bin, and a few days ago he discovered they were budding.

COUNTY WOMEN WORKIMG HARD ON BOND SALES

Reports from township chairmen of the county Women's Liberty Loan committee are coming in slowly, only eight townships out of the 22 having been heard from in regard to the results of the week's campaign.

By far the best showing, thus far, has been made by Franklin township, $16,200 having been sold by the women there up till Saturday evening. The work of selling bonds is new to practically all the women in the county and some of the solicitors are showing considerable ability along this line.

The following sales have been reported from the eight townships:

Bedford	$3,050
Clark	2,900
Franklin	16,200
Jackson	7,400
Keene	1,500
Oxford	1,400
Perry	1,200
Tuscarawas	1,300
